SUBJECT: Madison Area (including the G.A.B.) Voicemail System Back Online

I am pleased to inform you that as of this Wednesday morning, the Madison Area Voicemail System is back online. We have been assured by the Wisconsin Department of Administration that the System is up and working. The resumption of service includes our agency, the Government Accountability Board.

Since this past Monday when the Madison Area Voicemail System started manifesting problems, if you left or tried to leave a voicemail message to any G.A.B. staff members, please do not assume we received and were able to retrieve it. Most probably, we never received it. We respectfully ask that you try your call again, or send us an email.

Once again, we appreciate your patience and understanding. Thank you.
